

The Ides of March

The Plot Thickens...

The Ides of March or March 15 is widely known as the day on which Julius Ceasar was betrayed and killed. He was literally stabbed in the back by people that he had known his entire life....

Ironically, The Ides of March or March 15, 2009 is the day that the ROGUE UNELECTED board said that they met and removed Chairman Williams Meadows, Anne Wesley and Pastor Joel Peebles from the Board of Trustees. These three followers of Christ have served The City of Praise for a combined total of more than a century! They deserve better AND SO DO WE!

The Rogue Unelected Board Should be Ashamed.
The Rogue Unelected Board Has To Go!
